Mr. Oliver R. Barrett
310 So. Michigan Avenue
Chicago, Ill.

My dear Mr. Barrett:

How good of you to send me the paragraphs marked by Mr. Lincoln in the "Elements of Character." I have about despaired of getting a copy of the book though I have been after it since my talk with you last October. I am afraid there isn't much hope of one turning up. But these paragraphs of course serve my purpose very well, and I am most grateful to you for passing them on to me.

With appreciation of your kindness, believe me

Very sincerely yours

Edwin Parkell
