Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
Care of Radio Station WEAJ
711 Fifth Ave.,
New York City:

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Having listened to many of your addresses on Lincoln "over the air" and with the recent reading of "I Knew Lincoln" fresh in my mind, I respectfully call your attention to Mr. Henry Reynolds, of Newark, New York State, who was privileged to know President Lincoln quite intimately. Realizing your extreme interest in the subject, I suggest this contact and hope that it may prove interesting to you and the source of additional information which you might gather.

In the event that I can be of service to you in this connection, please do not hesitate to ask.

Very truly yours,

PS—I will forward to you next week clipping from The Courier of a recent interview with Mr. Reynolds, and ask that if possible you furnish me with more accurate address.
