Lincoln Club

January 4, 1933.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

The Lincoln Club of Los Angeles holds a dinner annually to commemorate the birth of Abraham Lincoln.

Our Board of Governors has asked me to write to you and request a letter from you to be read to our membership on that occasion.

As one of the real authorities on Lincoln's life, a message from you would be a great inspiration to our members.

The Lincoln Club is composed of some two hundred leading Republicans of Los Angeles and southern California.

We have had among our annual speakers President Hoover, former Governor Lowden of Illinois, Henry Allen of Kansas, and other men prominent in our national life.

Robert Todd Lincoln, while he was living, always sent us a message to be read on the occasion of the dinner in memory of his father. Calvin Coolidge, during his term as President, always sent a message to be read. Partially to identify in your mind the character of the club, I may say that Henry M. Robinson, former member of the Dawes Commission, was our President for a number of years.

Trusting that you will favor us with a few words, I remain,

Cordially,

Edward A. Dickson
Chairman, Dinner Committee

Miss Ida Tarbell,
Bethel, Conn.
