My dear Miss Tarbell:

I wrote you two letters some days ago about your appearance in Royal Oak and to date I have not heard from you. I am very anxious that there be no mistake made in the date of your appearance in this city and you are to be here February 12th. I am asking you to let me know as quickly as possible so that other arrangements can be made here for your reception in the afternoon.

I am,

Most cordially yours,
