Mrs. Clara Bliss Finley,
1805 Phelps Place,
Washington, D.C.

My dear Mrs. Finley:

I have just been going over a quantity of Lincoln notes, gathered twenty and more years ago, when I was working on my Life of Lincoln. Among those notes I found the enclosed article on the Armory Square Hospital, taken from the Northern Monthly, and marked, as you will see, "Mrs. Finley - to be returned."

In some way, in the accumulation of notes and material, it was overlooked. I must humbly apologize for this, and at this late day return the article.

I hope this finds you well. It is a very long time since I have heard anything about you. My last few years have been very driven, and when I have been in Washington it has been generally on some special piece of work which made it impossible for me to look up old friends and acquaintances.

Very sincerely yours,
