

WILLIAM FORTUNE

WAR MEMORIAL BLDG.

INDIANAPOLIS

February 10, 1926

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East Nineteenth Street,
New York City, New York.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I am leaving today for Washington for some days of duty there with the United States Chamber of Commerce, where I shall be in conference with members of the committee of which I am chairman. My address there will be in care of John J. O'Connor, Manager of the Department of Finance, United States Chamber of Commerce. I shall probably be in New York on Saturday, but I suppose you will be away as your last letter indicated that you would soon be leaving to be absent probably until March. If, however, there is any chance to see you and it will not be inconvenient for you, I shall be glad to avail myself of the opportunity.

I have made some corrections in the stenographic report of my talk to the Southwestern Indiana Historical Society and I am sending you today one of the corrected copies which I would like to substitute for the copy heretofore furnished you and I would like to recall all of the old copies. Will you, therefore, kindly return to me the old copy in your hands to avoid the possibility of any future use of it? I have in the later copy more definitely developed some statements.

I quite agree with your opinion regarding Sandburg's book.

If I have lost the opportunity of a reunion with you and the Rices I am very sorry as it is always interesting to me and gives me great pleasure to be with you. My best greetings to all,

Cordially yours,

William Fortune
