

March 2, 1938

My dear Mr. Bullock:

Thank you for your letter about my review of "The Hidden Lincoln." I am glad you approved of what I had to say.

I am interested in your forthcoming book - "Two Men from the South" and I am pleased that anything I may have written may have helped whet your interest. Lincoln is a worth while character for us all to study.

Thanking you again for your letter, believe me

Very truly yours

Mr. C. Seymour Bullock
218 E. Bartlett Street
South Bend, Indiana