VICE PRESIDENT

Dear Miss Tarbell:

As the foremost authority in the writings of Abraham Lincoln, I thought you would be interested in adding to your library the smallest full bound book which has ever been made. This book contains four of Lincoln's Addresses and you will find enclosed in a small envelope two copies, together with a leaflet, describing the history of this little book.

If, after looking over these two books, you feel that you would like a few additional copies, please let me know and I shall be very glad to send them on to you.

Sincerely yours,

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th St.,
New York City.
