My dear Mr. Barlow:

How very kind of you to remember my interest in all things which touch Abraham Lincoln. This is a wonderful little thing that you send me and it is of real value in the work that I have on hand at the moment arranging my Lincoln collection for my old college - Allegheny, Meadville, Pa.

I am going to keep one copy for the collection together with your letter and the printed matter and give one to a Mr. Du Vivier, of Paris, to whom I am under obligation - an intelligent and enthusiastic collector, who happens to be in town.

Of course, if you can spare other copies, my dear Mr. Barlow, they will be of real value to me in my collecting.

May I ask you to accept in recognition of your courtesy the autographed copy of "He Knew Lincoln," which I am forwarding to you today.

Very sincerely yours

Mr. A. J. Barlow, Vice-President
