

April 22, 1939

Dear Mr. Bullard:

Your letter of April eighteenth together with enclosures has reached Miss Tarbell's desk. She is out of the city at present expecting to be away for several weeks. Upon her return, however, I shall call her immediate attention to your letter. I know she will be interested in what you have to say.

Yours very truly

Secretary to Miss Tarbell

Mr. F. Lauriston Bullard
Boston, Mass.
