

September 22, 1932

Mr. C. J. Brosman
634 Deakin Avenue
Moscow, Idaho

Dear Mr. Brosman:

Your letter of September 11th has reached Miss Tarbell's desk. She is out of the city at present, expecting now to be away several weeks.

I do know, however, that Miss Tarbell has said repeatedly that she knew of no authority for the quotation which you quote in your letter.

Yours very truly

Secretary to Miss Tarbell