

Sept. 2, 1922

Mrs. C. F. Fisher,
215 S. Chestnut St.,
Kewanee, Ill.

My dear Mrs. Fisher:

I am all for those who fry the bacon, and I am particularly strong for them when frying the bacon not only does not prevent their reading a serious book but does not even get in their way of writing its author if they happen to like it. Thank you for your generosity.

I am much interested in what you say about the motor trip that you and Mr. Fisher have taken - interested because I am myself hoping soon to do exactly the same thing, go over every foot of Lincoln territory in Illinois. This summer I have been following in the footsteps of Lincoln's Massachusetts, New Jersey and Pennsylvania ancestors - good solid people, who stuck to their job and were credited to their communities.

When I go to Illinois, may I look you up at Kewanee? And will you show me your pictures? I shall appreciate it.

Is there a boy in your family? If so I would like to send him a copy of my Boy Scouts' Life of Lincoln.

Thanking you for your letter, I am

Sincerely yours,

Project: The Papers of William D. Howells, 1839-1922. Digitized by the University of Illinois Press. Copyright © 1994. All rights reserved.