IDA M. TARBELL
Mr. C. M. Durley, to whom this letter is addressed, is a brother of A. W. Durley. The letter shows that Miss Tarbell is exhausting every source of information from which can be gathered the incidents of Lincoln's early life, also that Robert T. Lincoln, the son of the martyred president, is interesting himself in the work. Mr. Durley will have the letter photographed and it will undoubtedly appear in one of the articles of the series. The letter was published in the Inland Ocean July 2, 1893.

Another gentleman residing in Superior who could undoubtedly furnish some interesting reminiscences of Lincoln while he was president is Lawyer G. E. Maltie, who was a White House clerk for two years during Lincoln's administration.
