

WILLIAM L. BRUNYATE
COUNSELLOR AT LAW
NEWARK, N. J.

May 6th, 1933.

Miss Thelma Wolfe,
120 East 9th Street,
New York City.

Dear Miss Wolfe :-

You, of course, know that I have no desire whatever to annoy Miss Tarbell or to be unduly remindful. She has been altogether too gracious for me to presume. However, Mr. Lum, the President of the New Jersey Historical Society has again requested me to make inquiry as to whether or not Miss Tarbell is still of a mind to write a short article on my Lincoln picture for publication in the magazine, for they would be only too glad to give her all the space she wished. Indeed, they greatly regret their inability to buy an article.

However, the magazine does have a wide circulation among the best citizenship of New Jersey and of course, is widely disseminated among historical societies. They would be only too happy to give wide circulation whatever Miss Tarbell wished to write.

I wish you would be good enough to pay to Miss Tarbell my very high regards. Since last hearing from her I have read much of her work with pleasure.

Very sincerely yours,
