Mr. H. A. Forster,
32 Liberty St.,
New York City.

My dear Mr. Forster:

I have been out of town for some weeks which will explain the delay in replying to your recent letters calling my attention to the pamphlets on Lincoln and the Civil War by Miss Mildred Rutherford.

I have several of these pamphlets in my files though I don't know that I have a complete set. I have been hoping for some months to thoroughly analyze them. I shall be obliged of course if you will call my attention to any point in them which impressed you particularly. I doubt myself, however, that they are having as much influence in the South as I take it from your letter you think they have.

Sincerely yours,
