

Lowland, O., Jan. 11, 1900.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Thanks for your kind response to what I feared might seem an intrusive letter. I am sure the subject, under your skilled hand, will have the best possible ~~effect~~ ^{treatment} in affording a reasonable ground of faith to those who are willing to believe in the legitimacy of Lincoln's mother.
It will give me great pleasure to read your article in all.

When completed, should you honor me with the opportunity.

Believe me very cordially yours,

Geo. H. Barrett.
