Mr. William D. Chenery,
411 West Lawrence Ave.,
Springfield, Ill.

My dear Mr. Chenery:

I do not think I ever thanked you for the clippings that you were good enough to send me in February, after the Springfield-Lincoln celebration. I enjoyed them all.

I made the addition in the note on the picture of the Hotel which I shall use when I come to the chapter on Lincoln's trip to Washington.

With many thanks for all your kindness, believe me, my dear Mr. Chenery,

Very sincerely yours,
