Dear Miss Tarbell-

I desire to congratulate you on being given the honor of being "Pilgrim Number One, of Lincoln Shrine Trail." No one could be more worthy of it, and I am glad your name heads the list.

I have visited many of the places in the last three lists, but never expect to qualify on the Colonial Pilgrimage.

I enclose the latest print, with printed explanation, of the Lincoln Home 1860. Many are not acquainted with the fact he could be included among "100 prominent Twice Born Men," but you no doubt are.

No doubt you have received the enclosed program for a Lincoln Pilgrimage June 15-18, but I have just written Dr R. E. Hieronymus that being a commissioner to Illinois Presbyterian Synod at Carlinville on same dates, makes it impossible for me to accept.

I hope you are enjoying as good health as I am, and will celebrate my 83rd birthday July 14th as I did my 71st spiritual one April 3rd. That is the one I know about and am most happy over.

You may be interested to know something of the church we all joined, and my father was so useful in.

With best wishes, I remain, Yours truly

Isaac R. Diller
