

October 6, 1920

Mr. Frank Evans,
Palace Theatre Building,
New York City.

My dear Mr. Evans:

Pardon me for my delay in writing you. I have been out of town since our telephone talk.

You ask me what I would think a proper return for giving Mr. Sale the exclusive right to arrange "He Knew Lincoln" in a vaudeville act. I think $60. a week would be a fair price. Is this satisfactory to you?

Very truly yours,