Nov. 23, 1922

Mr. William Fortune,
Indianapolis, Ind.

Dear Mr. Fortune:

I am just back in New York and find in my accumulated mail the photographs which you were so good as to send. How well they have come out. I am particularly pleased with the tree, the pool and the groups.

I hope that you will not object to my using some of these in my narrative.

You were interested in Cathey's book, the Enloe version of Lincoln's parentage. I find, as I thought, that I have an extra copy, and I am sending it to you.

It is very good to be home and at my notes, although I do feel a little alarmed at the accumulation.

Please remember me kindly to Mrs. Lilly, and believe me

Faithfully yours,

Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944. Allegheny College Pelletier Library