

File of Letters Speed

January 11, 1927.

Mr. Wm. J. Campbell,
529 Washington St.,
Dorchester, Mass.

My dear Mr. Campbell:

I have been in Europe for several months and returning find in my accumulated correspondence your note of June 8th with a copy of the communication you had sent to the "Literary Digest." It interests me very much. You say that you have a good deal of first hand matter pertaining to Lincoln from Conness. Have you ever had it published. If so, where can I get hold of copies. I do not like to allow anything of this kind to escape me. Possibly if you have never written your recollections of Mr. Conness talk you would allow me to talk with you or talk to a good interviewer, so that we might get the matter down. What do you say to this?

Very sincerely,

IMT BHK.