Dear Miss Tarbell:-

Thank you for the autograph copy just received of , "He Knew Lincoln," and other Billy Brown stories. I am very glad to have this with your autograph. Sometime if I may I will send you such books of yours as I possess for your signature. On my recent trip to New York I picked up at Newhall's one of the 75 cent sets of your "Life of Lincoln" on large paper, which would be improved if it had an inscription from you.

I sent you quite a bunch of pamphlets containing addresses of mine. I hoped to have by this time my address on " The Lincoln's in Their Old Kentucky Home," given before the Filson Club.

Illinois College is soon to print my address there on "The Education of Abraham Lincoln." I will send you these if you care for them when they come from the press.

Yours very truly,

William E. Barton
