Letter: Ida M. Tarbell to George Dondero, July 26, 1927
Mr. George Dondero
Royal Oak, Mich.

My dear Sir:

Mr. H. W. Fay, the Custodian of Lincoln's Tomb at Springfield, Ill., tells me that you have information on Mary Todd Lincoln which he thinks it might be possible you would pass on to me.

I am preparing an article on Mrs. Lincoln, and of course am anxious to get hold of as much fresh material as possible. May I hear from you about what you have?

Thanking you in advance for your courtesy, believe me

Very sincerely yours
