Dear Miss Tarbell:-

When we sat around the Radio last evening to hear "The Knows Lincoln" - we did not expect the pleasure of hearing the author speak, and it was a pleasure indeed - Every body enjoyed the little meeting, I know, - but your voice coming over the air, gave to us, who

How you, a real thrill - your voice and little turns of your words, reminded me very much of your mother -

I trust you are very well and enjoying the winter - We all send kind regards -

Very sincerely
