Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East Nineteenth Street,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Your letter of January 10th was received the day after Mr. Jenkins sailed for England.

We appreciate greatly your courtesy in giving us this comment on TAD LINCOLN'S FATHER, by Julia Taft Bayne.

We enclose the proofs you request—of "The Program of the 'Circus' in the White House," and of the cards gathered from Tad Lincoln's snow storm.
The "snow storm" proof is not very clean, but it seems to be our last one. As you have noted, this cut is printed on the same stock that the text is printed on, and if you should wish a clean proof, it would have to be one which would give the effect of having been merely torn out of a copy of the book.
Under the circumstances, I judge that this engraver's proof which I enclose, is of more value to you.

I also enclose a slip autographed by Mrs. Bayne which may be "tipped in" your copy.

With renewed appreciation of your courtesy, we are

Very truly yours,

LITTLE, BROWN & COMPANY

F. M. Clouter.
