Dear Miss Tarbell

I have just found a small remainder of an interesting 16 page pamphlet entitled "LITTLE SERMONS IN SOCIALISM, BY ABRAHAM LINCOLN." Cilled and commented on by Burke McCarty.

The author quotes Lincoln's own words as gleaned from various speeches, papers, etc., and in each case cites his authority, for verification, and adds his comments.

This matter first appeared in the Chicago Daily Socialist, in 1910, and the pamphlet, while not dated, was doubtless issued that same year.

May I send a copy, postpaid, for one dollar?

Sincerely,

H E Barker
