Dear Mrs. Tashell:

Has that wicked Boston instilled any more scandals? Lord my love, but you horrified me, loony.
that terrible man—
Every body declared him to that last lofty of his—He concil
And remarks about the Great Lincoln—As well As his brother—Are simply unaccountable
Please dear Miss Tastes do not Stand up for me! It hurts you. I have been finding some of my old papers. Would you read two hundred bags of and advise me what to do, don't bring the family genealogy into this controversy. The whole family of Lincoln's admirers are using against Boston and his wicked main nations.

Yours in all sincerity. Caroline Harber Hitchcock

- May 9 -