Boy Scouts joined the Lincoln Association and admirers of the Great Emancipator when a memorial wreath was placed on the statue at the entrance to Lincoln Park, Jersey City, yesterday. J. Owen Grundy, a descendant of Lincoln, stood at the foot of the monument, while Rudy Johnson, left, and Stephen Andrews, right, climbed to the Emancipator’s Gettysburg side.

(Reprinted from Jersey Observer, February 12, 1934)