Dear Miss Tarbell

Mr. Paul M. Angle of the Lincoln Centennial Association informed me last night that after Tracey's book went to print he had about twelve or fifteen unpublished Lincoln letters which he could not include and which he sent to you (or copies of which he sent to you).

I am preparing a book to appear next year entitled "Abraham Lincoln - New Phases" and I am making a nationwide search (not unlike yours thirty years ago) for every bit of unpublished Lincoln material. Now, may I have copies of those letters which Mr. Angle speaks about? I will indeed greatly appreciate them. Of course, it goes without saying that anything in my possession which you would like to have a copy of or a photostatic copy of, you are welcome to.

Cordially yours
