My dear Mr. Jones:

Thank you for taking the trouble to write me so kindly about my little article on the Lincoln Pilgrimage. I am much interested in what you say about the site of the Forge in Chester County in which Mordecai Lincoln was interested. I certainly want to look at the ruins and get the lay of the land. It must have been a fine plant for its time. I have the names of his partners but have never located the Forge itself.

I appreciate your invitation to drive me to the site some Saturday or Sunday and I want to take advantage of it. I think I can hardly arrange a time before August but sometime in that month when it is convenient to you I shall be very glad to run down to Wilmington by an early train.

I should appreciate the chance, too, to talk with Mr. Montgomery.

It is courteous of you to consider my interest and make so pleasant a plan to help me, believe me

Gratefully yours
