

Dear Cousin Henry: - Your letter just recd. I had noticed the mistake - Wm. G. <sup>Green</sup> Greene - was the son of Wm.
Griggs Greene, instead of Bowling Greene - They were second cousins
I think or perhaps cousins - I can find no record of the relationship of Bowling Greene &

---

Wm. G. Greene.

The story of Billy's suffer that night has always been told in the family just as Miss Tarbell related it - I am so glad you wrote about this for I will be so glad to get it straightened out before the book is published. Sincerely (Miss Cousin) Willie W. Greene.
