Miss Thelma Wolfe,
Secretary to Miss Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.

Dear Miss Wolfe:

This acknowledges receipt of yours of the 17th inst. with letter from R. W. Taylor to McMillan &
Co. attached.

My reaction in this matter is to omit answering same. I feel that Mr. Taylor is more or less an amateur. At least, he has no standing in the profession, and, consequently, I do not believe that any reasonable compensation could be derived from granting him the license he desires. Furthermore, were such a license granted to him, it might be extremely inconvenient in the event that somebody of importance should desire an exclusive and profitable (to Miss Tarbell) license for this purpose.

Mr. Taylor's letter is being returned herewith.

HHG:RR
Enc.

Yours very truly,

J. Harold Gumm
