Dear Miss Tarbell:

It was good of you to write under date of January 17.

It happens the manuscript doesn't come within the scope of my library - and I don't believe the book would contribute to what I have in mind. I am interested distinctly in books about Lincoln, which takes me out of the millionaire class as far as mine are concerned, and keeps my library about in the shape I want it.

I would certainly appreciate any advice you can give me on books from time to time and I am looking forward to the pleasure of seeing you in the near future.

With best wishes, I am

Yours sincerely,

Alfred C. Howell
