June 20th, 1935.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

This acknowledges receipt of yours of the 18th instant in re letter from Mrs. Charles Sale, and your reply thereto advising her that the matter of the royalties for "He Knew Lincoln" has been referred to me. I am quite in agreement with you that the terms to Mr. Sale be quite reasonable, because of his especial contribution to the public renown of Bill Brown.

Of even date herewith I am writing Mr. Sale.

Very sincerely,

Adelbert Gumm
