1895-12-31

Manuscripts: Various titles

Hoosier, A.

http://hdl.handle.net/10456/28450

This item is in the public domain.

All materials in the Allegheny College DSpace Repository are subject to college policies and Title 17 of the U.S. Code.
in consequence went to see dear little Samuel Crawford. He found him quite ill. He had just had a severe chill or "shake" still he was pleased to talk about that wonderful man. "Oh yes I remember the Lincolns although I was not Abraham's age. He was twelve years older than I. One day I ran in calling out 'Mother, mother, Aaron Fryday is speaking Sally Lincoln, I saw him kiss her.' Mother scolded me & told me I must stop watching Sally as I wouldn't get to the wedding." When the Lincolns moved to Illinois their wagon wheels were tired with hickory withes instead of iron.

Silas & John Richardson went with them away up into Harriet Lea, where somebody that knew them all gave a dance. Silas & John didn't dance & I can't say whether Abe did or not.

Neighbors thought lots more of each other then than now. It is seems like everybody liked the Lincolns. They were well acquainted for Mr. Thomas Lincoln was a good carpenter & made the cupboard mantles, doors & sashes in our old home that was burned down, but the cupboards were taken out when father died."
may some one representative want she become great deal about the rhymes in Lincoln
note & particularly about the pauses salve in the magazine. She determined to find some of these easily rhymes if possible.