Dear Miss Tarbell:

I am in receipt of a check in the sum of $200 from N. W. Ayer & Son, being payment for broadcasting of "HE KNEW LINCOLN" on the Eveready Hour, Tuesday, February 11th, 1930.

I am also in receipt of check in the sum of $100 from Publix Theatres Corporation, being payment for the right to make a short film subject, based upon the episode from "HE KNEW LINCOLN", as provided in the agreement by and between yourself and Publix Theatres Corporation; said usage being for the year 1931.

I am enclosing herewith our check in the sum of $255.00, which represents both payments aforesaid, after deducting our customary fee of $20.00 from the N. W. Ayer & Son payment; and after deducting the sum of $25.00 from the Publix payment, which covers our fee for the negotiations in reference to the contract and the drafting of same.

Very truly yours,
