Dear Miss Hamand:

I wonder if you could help me to get a duplicate of one of the items in the collection of clippings on Master's "Lincoln" which you were good enough to lend me when I was in Tucson. You remember the cartoon, "With Malace Toward One," do you not? I think it was published in some Western paper but I am not sure. It was the best cartoon that I have seen on the subject and I am anxious to have a copy. If, at your leisure, you will look over your clippings and let me know who published this I am sure I can get a copy.

I hope you are well and that the winter in Tucson did you good. I came back here in April - still feeling rather seedy from the effects of the influenza which I enjoyed throughout my time in Arizona. It was really very hard luck and kept me from doing so many things that I should like to have done.

However, I am all right now and the sunshine we are getting here is doing for me what Arizona sunshine did not have a chance to do.

I hope from time to time you will let me know how you are.

Affectionately yours

Miss Jane Hamand
