Mr. William C. Briggs,
Book Department,
Messrs. Harper Brothers,
Franklin Square, New York.

Dear Mr. Briggs:

I have dictated a letter to Mrs. Webber, which you may or may not think wise. If there is anything in it to which you object, will you not kindly let me know?

I am to be in town until tomorrow afternoon (Friday), so that you could reach me by telephone at my apartment.

Very truly yours,
