

October 19, 1921

Mr. William H. Briggs,
Franklin Square,
New York City.

My dear Mr. Briggs:

Thank you for your note with enclosure from Mrs. Weber.

I don't see anything to do just now. I rather think that it would be just as well to let it run until I can get out to Illinois. Then I will go down and have a talk with her and see whether or not I could use the manuscript there on the grounds. I am not at all sure that the publication of the Diary would ruin our scheme. But we can talk that over later.

Very truly yours,