January 12, 1957.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

We are delighted that you will be able to speak on the "Magazine of the Air" on February 12th on Lincoln.

The time and terms are the same as at the previous broadcast -- only we shall try to arrange for you to have all the time you need -- so don't shorten your script too drastically. We will shorten up the music if necessary.

We shall look forward so much to having you drop in and talk about possible lectures. It might be that we could arrange something quite special for you about the Lincoln Birthday period. Would you like to have us try?

Cordially,

Dorothy Worthington
