

January 28, 1938

My dear Mr. King:

I have your letter asking me to speak on Lincoln at a meeting of the Flatbush Luncheon Club on Wednesday, February ninth.

If I were free and to be in town I should consider your invitation, but I am not to be in New York on that date.

Appreciating your invitation and regretting that I cannot consider it, believe me

Very sincerely yours

Mr. Benjamin J. King
887 Flatbush Avenue
Brooklyn, New York