Dear Miss Tarbell:-

Dr. Butler is not very clear whether Robert Lincoln attempted to burn the letters in 1926 or 1927. All he knows, is that it took place during one of those summers when he made his annual visit to Robert Lincoln's summer home.

I want to thank you again for your review in the Times. It was commented on in St. Louis, Springfield, Chicago, Cleveland, Cincinnati and Philadelphia.

I found the book very much discussed everywhere and practically sold out in every store which I visited.

Cordially yours,
