"Pittsburgh, Apr. 25.--Mr. Duncan, a reliable citizen of Pittsburgh, had just returned from Meadville, and mentions a singular circumstance in connection with the assassin Booth.

While stopping at the McHenry House in Meadville, on the fourth of June last, Booth wrote on a pane of glass, with his diamond ring the following words: "Abe Lincoln departed this life August 13th, 1864, by the effects of poison."

Booth's name was written on the Hotel register in the same handwriting. Several of his friends, at different times occupied the same room. A complete register has been kept of all the names of the occupants of the room since June last."
