

April 26, 1935

Dear Mr. Holcomb:

You'll pardon the delay in replying to your letter of April 17th asking me to autograph your copy of The Boy Scouts' Life of Lincoln. I have been having a turn of influenza and have only just come back to my desk.

Of course I am glad to autograph the book and it goes to you today.

Thank you for not forgetting that I had suggested going to Indianapolis one of these days and asking you to take me out to Lincoln City. I doubt very much whether it can be this summer, but possibly it may be in the Fall - October. I can't be quite sure now, but you may be sure that just as soon as I can get the leisure to make the trip I shall be asking you if it is convenient for you.

Looking forward to seeing what you are doing in Southwestern Indiana, believe me

Very sincerely yours

Mr. J. I. Holcomb
Indianapolis, Indiana
