

January 8, 1933 [1934]

My dear Mr. Iglehart:

Thank you for your letter of December 23rd. Glad enough if the letter I wrote to your father was in any way cheering. I learned that he was very ill and I wanted him to know that I thought of him with gratitude for the fine Lincoln work that he has done.

Will you not give him my best wishes for a Happy New Year?

Very sincerely yours