

11

Feb

New York, January 20, 1920.

The Macmillan Company,
64-5th Avenue,
New York. Attention Mr. B. A. Mead.

Dear Sir:

I have your letter of January 17th. Yes, you may go ahead with "In Lincoln's Chair", without further submitting of proofs.

It is understood that this book is not to appear without consulting Mr. J. S. Phillips of the Red Cross Magazine.

Very truly yours,