Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I wired you yesterday as follows:

"Will you send Ludwig's Lincoln manuscript to our New York office, 354 Fourth Avenue, before five P. M. Wednesday. Kindly wire."

We were informed that you had gone to Bethel, Connecticut, and to-day we have received the information that you are returning to New York this afternoon. I hope, therefore, that you will be able to deliver the Lincoln manuscript to our New York office before five o'clock tomorrow. As I am leaving Boston on the one o'clock train, I would appreciate word from you before that hour. Wire collect.

I have an appointment to meet Mr. Ray Long, editor of the Cosmopolitan, at the Roosevelt at 6:30.

Sincerely yours,

HFJ/M

Herbert F. Jenkins
