New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

On the manuscript of the third installment of your Lincoln story, I find your card of the 20th ult. To make sure that you have formal acknowledgment of this installment, I am sending this note.

We all enjoyed very much our luncheon conference with you and are persuaded that we are going to arouse a splendid cooperation on the part of our scout field in putting over the Lincoln hikes, etc.

Very sincerely yours,

Franklin K. Mathews
