1923-07-11

Letter: Mrs. L.M. Robins to Ida M. Tarbell, July 11, 1923

Robbins, L.M., Mrs.

http://hdl.handle.net/10456/30093

The copyright owner of this item is unknown. It is the responsibility of the researcher to identify and satisfy the holders of all copyrights.

All materials in the Allegheny College DSpace Repository are subject to college policies and Title 17 of the U.S. Code.
July 11th, 1923.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

We are sorry to say that we do not have, and have never had, any copies of "Abraham Lincoln - His Book." It did not appear on the bill of sale from McClure, Phillips & Co. to Doubleday, Page & Co., and nothing in connection with the book was ever turned over to us. We did have two Lincoln books, which have since been transferred to the Macmillan Company: "The Life of Lincoln" and "He Knew Lincoln."

Very truly yours,

DOUBLEDAY, PAGE & COMPANY,

(Mrs.) C.M. Robbins
Editorial Department.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.