Miss Ida M. Tarbell
120 E. 19th St.
New York City, N. Y.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

By this time you have received, I am sure, an invitation from Mr. Hall, the President of our Company, to attend the dedicatory services here in Fort Wayne on September 16. It occurs to me that I should add my wish to that of President Hall's that you might attend these services.

On several occasions you have advised me that it is your hope that some time the opportunity would come for you to visit Fort Wayne and it appears to me that this would be an exceedingly opportune time for you to come.

There will be Lincoln students here from all of the Central States and I am especially anxious that you see our Museum and Library as well as this very fine bronze by Paul Manship.

You will be interested to know that he gives you some credit for helping to inspire him to create the Hoosier Youth and I feel it would greatly please him if you were here to see the unveiling of this monument. We all trust that you may be able to come.

Very sincerely yours,

Louis A. Warren, Director
